Public Invited To Hear Federation Proposal

BY BETTY BRANCH

A plan to federate all existing property owners groups in Carmel Valley will be presented at Carmelo School on Wednesday, November 18, at 8:00 p. m. to the Mid-Valley Property Owners Association. The interested public is invited.

While maintaining historical continuity in terms of the long-established Carmel Valley Property Owners Association (CVPOA) the plan would provide for the handling of neighborhood problems by neighborhood groups, and direct representation from each neighborhood group to the larger Valley-wide organization. At the same time it would greatly strengthen the latter.

James Sanders and Cdr. Lee Jewell last month suggested the idea to the Mid-Valley group and were appointed by its president, Ariel Lane, to study the situation further. "The idea is not a new one," Sanders told the Outlook early this week, "but the need for its realization now appears more apparent and more pressing than in the past."

Both men stress that their experience as residents of the Farm Center area convinces them that neighborhood organizations are needed for the solution of neighborhood problems, but that "some means must be found to prevent anyone from making it appear that the Valley is divided."

To evolve a workable proposal, the committee retained a Valley resident, James Nielson, an attorney who has extensive experience in the organization of incorporated non-profit groups. Although specific in principle, the proposal leaves concrete details of execution to be decided later, "if other organizations like the idea," Jewell explained.

Mid-Valley's Lane told his group last month that if the concept of neighborhood groups

Reports on zoning problems in Carmel Highlands, including the Hahn property, expansion of the Tickle Pink Motel, and future zoning questions are on the agenda for the November meeting of the Carmel Highlands Association. The date is next Wednesday, November 18, at the Carmel Highlands Community Firehouse. Chairman William Hazell said that a resolution of the beach path problem will also be presented, and that officers for 1965 will be elected.

As is customary, the nominating committee will present a slate and further nominations will be welcomed from the floor. Hazell said there would also be further discussion on whether or not the Highlands Association should incorporate. "That's the association we are talking about -- not the incorporation of the community into a city," he stressed.

New Election Rules For CV Chamber

Fourteen members of the board of directors of the Carmel Valley Chamber of Commerce at a special meeting held last week voted unanimously to adopt different election methods this year.

The chamber elects ten men annually to its twenty-man board. Customarily, a slate of ten names has been nominated. This year the nominating committee will suggest twenty "to provide an actual election for the members, rather than a nominal one," Lou Gardner, nominating committee chairman, told his fellow directors.

Another change to be instituted will be the distribution and receipt of ballots by mail to each member. Thus every member will have the opportunity to vote, whether or not he attends the annual banquet at which elections customarily have been held. Ballots mailed to members will have spaces for written candidates, and will state the time and place at which the votes will be counted by an election committee to be appointed by President Rex White.

The directors voted to amend Chamber by-laws to make these methods acceptable henceforth at the discretion of the nominating committee. Gardner said he felt both procedures were "more democratic... and we would have fewer complaints as a result."

He said that election by mail

Ballots for the election of 1965 directors for the Carmel Valley Chamber of Commerce have now been mailed to all members with return envelopes. Ballots will be counted between 7:00 and 8:00 p. m. at Reuben's on Wednesday, November 18, preceding dinner and the regular monthly meeting, president Rex White has announced.

White urged all members to make this election genuinely representative by filling out ballots and mailing them in time to be included in the counting.

was "not a new idea at all. The Monterey Peninsula Chamber has used it ever since I can remember."

Serving with Gardner on this year's nominating committee are Tom Waters, Paul Porter, Manfred Myers and Joe Pastore.

FLY-IN PREVIEW -- Here's one of the home-built airplanes among the 30-some expected to converge on Carmel Valley airport Sunday in a fly-in sponsored by the local Experimental Aircraft Association. Parachute jumping competition is also scheduled from 10 to 2, according to Pres. Al Norman of the Association.

Parachutists Jump Here This Weekend

"Parachute jumping is as safe as Little League baseball."

This is statistical truth emphasized by Norman Heaton, executive director of the Parachute Club of America, who will parachute from an airplane above Carmel Valley next Sunday. Parachute jumping will be part of the excitement of an air show and fly-in of more than 30 antique and home-built airplanes at the Carmel Valley airport.

Al Norman, president of the sponsoring Carmel Valley Experimental Aircraft Association, issued a general invitation to all air enthusiasts to inspect the unusual airplanes expected from throughout Northern California, and to watch at least seven

CVPOA Board Meet November 18

A meeting of the CVPOA Board of Directors will take place November 18 at 8:00 p. m. at the Community Center, according to the association's president, George Brown, to consider several use permits and zoning applications scheduled to come before the Planning Commission on November 24. The timing of the Plancom hearing made it necessary to move the Board's regular meeting date ahead.

County Plancom Hears Area Plan

Late Bulletin

The first of two hearings on the Area General Plan took place Tuesday afternoon before the County Planning Commission. February 9 was set as the date for the second.

Dr. Edward Marcucci acted as chairman; area plancom consultant Gordon Hall explained that a definite schedule has been set for periodic review of the plan and reasoned that until it is adopted it can scarcely be revised or reconciled with other plans. Mrs. Leon Stutzman, League of Women Voters president, reaffirmed the League's 8-year support of area planning and recommended adoption.

CVPOA president George Brown stressed that differences between plans are minor, presented this group's report containing a slope-density formula to be incorporated into the area plan. Area Plancom chairman Keith Evans (also on the County Planning Commission) acknowledged the formula and suggested that it be reconciled mathematically with the population projection of the CV Master Plan. He expressed the impression that it might prove such a liberal formula as to encourage more development than would prove desirable.

Attorney Peter Hoss, speaking for the Monterey County Council for Conservation and Planning, an organization of landowners with large holdings, promised a preliminary report from his group by December 15. George Brown expressed satisfaction that this date was well in advance of the second Area Plan hearing.

Commissioner Willard Branson, of Lower Carmel Valley, announced that he would disqualify himself from voting on the adoption of the plan, as he is "married to a charming young lady from Carmel Valley who has an interest in some of the property involved." He hoped, however, to be included in the discussion.

Letter To Editor

Dear Editor:

This is in defense of UNICEF. It is hard for most Americans even in the areas of poverty, to imagine a life where hunger and sickness are constant companions; TB, parasites, infant mortality are always with you.

This life is real for millions of children all over the world. We have just returned from the Philippines where many of these children live.

While in the Philippines, I, like many other Navy wives, participated in several projects in conjunction with UNICEF. We can testify that UNICEF is doing tremendous work in feeding, sheltering and caring for stricken children in the Philippines.

Moreover the UNICEF officials and their wives work under conditions that are extremely hard and frustrating.

One should, of course, contribute to one's own church organizations. Still, the fact remains, these organizations cannot handle all the needs.

From personal experience, I can say that the purchase of UNICEF cards and "trick or treat" for UNICEF is indeed a worthy cause.

Sincerely,
Ann Bixby
(Mrs. Harry L. Bixby)

An Editorial

Why the Hostility?

It is certainly frustrating to a smaller newspaper when its territory is covered by a larger one in a biased or inaccurate manner, thus compounding rather than alleviating difficulties in a community.

Now that FKA of the Monterey Peninsula Herald understands this frustration, we are sure he won't mind our borrowing the headline (type font and all) which he used in an editorial Monday evening to criticize the tactics of the San Francisco Examiner.

"It is hard to understand the Examiner's hostility..." wrote FKA of the overemphasis that the "Monarch of Dailies" accorded an unfortunate situation on the Monterey Peninsula.

We have often felt the same way about the Herald's treatment of the Valley, and have said so. Most recently, we regret a Herald column which labeled an unofficial discussion among members of the CVPOA board as "incoherent, inarticulate and inept," as well as "a mess" and a "shambles." We reported the same occasion as a painful ordeal which nonetheless provided a basis for better agreement in the future. Sure enough, only two nights later the CVPOA achieved what was probably the most constructive meeting of this year, wherein a long-needed slope-density formula was warmly accepted by virtually all in attendance.

We agree wholeheartedly, incidentally, with the Herald's pronouncement that Robert's Rules of Order should be consulted more frequently at Valley meetings in future. The Valley should face the fact that informal town meeting tactics are no longer appropriate. Our problems have grown with our population; our methods of dealing with them must become more sophisticated if we are to avoid looking ridiculous on the front page of the metropolitan daily. But why does the Herald treat some of our most devoted citizens with such hostility?

In complaining about the Examiner, the Herald's FKA also wrote, "a responsible newspaper has an obligation... to be completely accurate and unbiased." That's about as practical as suggesting that all human beings should be completely without defect. What person is -- and what newspaper? We can only try -- and wish that the Herald would try harder.

At the moment we are also concerned with the Herald's complete lack of coverage regarding the proposal before the Mid-Valley property owners that all such Valley groups unite through a federation. The Herald has never mentioned this proposal, although it did publish a suggestion made by Tom Hudson one week later -- for a "council" of all Valley organizations.

We hope that our readers understand that the two proposals are not to be confused with each other.

To federate means "to unite in a league." A council is "an assembly convened for consultation, deliberation, or advice." It will take more than the latter to solve our problems at this time! The two proposals were made at different times, by different people and, as these definitions should make clear, for different purposes.

The Herald may label some of our more earnest leaders "inept" but we think they will prove better able to understand these differences than our Big Brother in the world of journalism.

Women Voters Unit Meeting

Consensus questions concerning the state legislature will be the discussion topic of the CV unit of the League of Women Voters on Friday, November 13, at 10:00 a.m. The group will meet at the home of the unit chairman, Mrs. Alex Dobie, on Buena Vista Del Rio in Robles del Rio.

A demonstration of the perquisites of state legislators, designed by Mrs. Medill Bair of Rancho Canada and explained by Mrs. R. O. Bare of Robles del Rio, was a highlight of the League's last general meeting, and will be recapitulated briefly Friday.

Also on the agenda is appointment of a committee to study the proposed federation of property owners associations in the Valley, before this matter is presented to the general membership meeting scheduled for December 1.

The committee set up to study the by-laws of the CVPOA has completed its work, Brown said, and will make a report to the Board of Directors that evening. A request from the Community Center board for financial support will be considered, as will a wish expressed by residents of Carmel Knolls that the sign indicating the entrance to Carmel Valley be moved westward to include that subdivision in the CV geographical area.

The agenda for the December 1 general membership meeting will be discussed, and any other items that board members wish to raise.

While only members of the board will be able to take action at this meeting, the public is invited to attend for informational purposes.

Other booths will offer the "Valley Fare" cookbook and items made from it, stationery, gifts, decorations.

Junior High Parents

Dr. Wayne E. Rosenoff, director of the Curricula Publications Division of the California Test Bureau, will speak to the Carmel Junior High School Parent-Faculty Club on Tuesday, November 17, at 7:45 in the school library. His topic will be "Using Programmed Instruction to Teach Mathematics," and he will discuss research techniques, selection of programmed materials, and classroom applications.

A short program of folk music will be provided by Joe Broadman's guitar students; refreshments will follow the meeting.

All Junior High parents and faculty are invited to attend.

The annual fall luncheon of the Japanese American Citizens League was held Sunday afternoon at Leavell's restaurant under the chairmanship of Mrs. Evelyn Ogawa. Irene Stutzman and Mary Nichols presented a collection of fall fashions from the House of Lyn so glamorous that the show drew a large number of male spectators from the golf course next door! Mrs. Kei Nakamura and Mrs. Nobu Takigawa were co-chairmen of the show, assisted by Mrs. Anita Higshi and Mrs. Nancy Nakajima. The lovely models included Mrs. Rubi Hori, Mrs. Fumi Kodani, Mrs. Bette Uchida and Miss Marsha Ninomiya. The 46 members and guests were also treated to guitar selections by 12 year old Susan Nakamura and Debbie Uchida, 13.

A silver fountain from which champagne flowed all evening was the piece de resistance at the Halloween party held at the Holman Road home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Minor. The evening also marked the birthdates of Mrs. Robert Tuttle and Ralph Atkinson and served as a belated house warming and welcome home from Europe party for the host and hostess. Guests had been alerted to "come as you wish you were" so the imaginative costumes ranged from the exotic bird, Popagano (Marlinde von Ruhs) to Socrates and Aphrodite (Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Atkinson) to Bob Tuttle as "the great pumpkin"! Others enjoying a late buffet supper in a Halloween atmosphere were Dr. and Mrs. Scott Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Marcus. Mr. and Mrs. Will Shaw, Mr. and Mrs.

Steve Kahn, Dr. and Mrs. Jim Niebel, Mr. and Mrs. Harwell Dyer, and Mr. Bill Lederer. Mr. Lederer, co-author of "The Ugly American" is presently living in the Carmel Highlands where he and Eugene Burdick plan to collaborate on another novel.

Mrs. Tony Steliga and daughter, Jody, have returned from the south. They toured Tijuana, visited Louise's parents in Long Beach, and stopped in San Diego with Tony Jr. and family before he shipped out with the U.S. Navy for Vietnam.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Engleman of Encino Drive had house guests last weekend from Corona Del Mar. Mrs. George Friedl Jr. accompanied her son, George R. Friedl, a scientist who has recently returned from a world tour. The versatile Mr. Friedl, who seeks relaxation as a cartoonist, very graciously consented to judge one of the categories in the Tularcitos Halloween Carnival costume parade.

Friday evening dinner guests at Will's Fargo were treated to informal modeling by Dorothy Holley and Faye Elliot, who were showing the latest in apparel from Joanne's Sportswear. Patrons will be able to look forward to these glimpses of fashion every Friday night at Will's and each Saturday at Reubens.

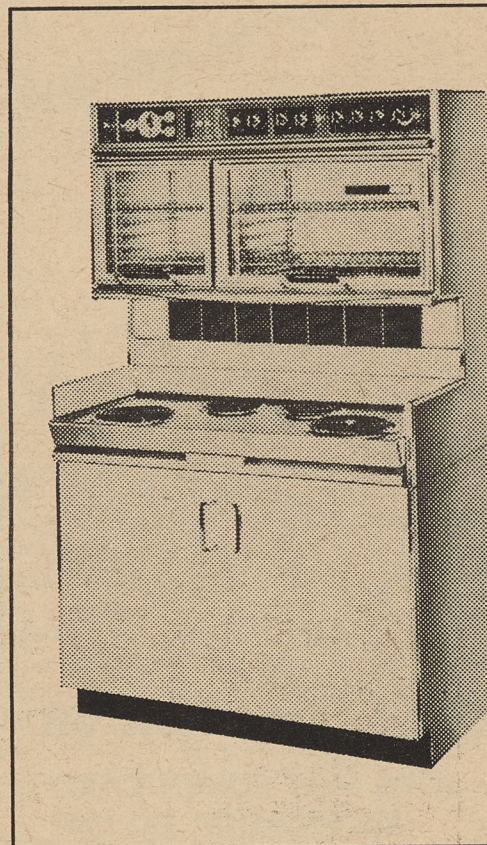

Mrs. Blair McDonald of Brookdale Drive and Canada Way was tea chairman of the annual Community Chest Tea held last week in Monterey at the Casa Serrano for all residential volunteers who participated in the 1964-65 United Red Feather Campaign. Preceding at the tea table during the afternoon in the historic setting was Mrs. Robert McDonald III, of La Rancheria. Receiving invitations were Mrs. Richard McKenzie, chairman of Robles Del Rio whose volunteers included; Mesdames Michael Carter, Frank O'Neal, Eugene Baker, Larry Busick, Robert Drew, Edward Arana, Franklin B. Osgood, William Isaacs, Henry Blatnick, George Dwyer and Robert Davis. Mrs. Mark Hattan, chairman of the Upper Valley, was assisted by Mesdames Robert Broberg, Don Weber, William Stowers, Frank Bresk, Nick Skalyo, Don Brill, Richard McKenzie, Rudi Malleck, Phillip Mothersill, Charles Custer, John Woolfenden, Jack Lundin, Robert Meadows, Tom Oliver, Milton Williams, I. Modern electric ranges are terrific!

Picture-windowed rotisserie ovens make indoor cooking look as mouth-watering as a charcoal barbecue. Automatic meat thermometer lets you set a roast roasting and forget all about it. New ovens turn themselves off when dinner is done and keep food warm for several hours without overcooking.

And you can choose styles and colors the way you would wallpaper, to suit your building or decorating plans.

Swimming Pool Ends First Season

Hundreds Receive Red Cross Cards

In a double-barrelled program of swimming instruction and instructor training during the first quarter of the school year, 169 Tularcitos students took swimming classes in the community pool, and five mothers won Red Cross water safety instructor certificates. More than half the youngsters enrolled in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades earned Red Cross Beginner or Advanced Beginner cards.

Speakeading the windup of the pool's initial season were Mrs. Philip Cuny and Mrs. Creston Crockett, who trained the mothers who taught the children. Mrs. Cuny, a Water Safety Instructor herself, showed the mothers the advanced swimming techniques needed for life-saving, and Mrs. Crockett, a Red Cross Instructor Trainer, gave them additional instruction in how to teach swimming.

Mmes. Phil Cordrey, Ben Lofton, Jim Rutledge, Marvin Huss and Carl Buckenroth received the cards and pins that designate them official Red Cross instructors in a brief ceremony at the Community Center. In return, the five trainees presented Mrs. Cuny and Mrs. Crockett with almond-green sweatshirts bearing the title "Coach" on one side and the group's private nickname, "The Unsinkables" on the other.

The seven ladies now will form a Carmel chapter of a Water Safety Service Club which will be available for any non-profit group that needs swimming instruction, such as Scout troops or handicapped children. In addition, they will be the nucleus of next year's program here at the Community pool.

Setting an example for the youth of the Valley, the Unsinkables have also embarked on a program of distance swimming, with Mrs. Buckenroth completing the 50 miles that qualify her for an official Red Cross pin and badge. The rules require the 50 miles to be swum within a year's time, in units of no less than 1/4 mile (18 laps). Mrs. Crockett has accomplished 30 miles toward the record; Mrs. Cordrey 20 miles, and Mrs. Lofton 17. Mrs. Cuny is a veteran 50-mile swimmer.

Their final contribution to the pool program has been the hours and hours of paper work and record keeping necessary to keep tabs on every child's achievement and fill out the cards for those who completed courses. Youngsters who did not win cards nonetheless had their swimming performance evaluated, and a letter sent to their parents. Still brimming with enthusiasm, the Unsinkables are only waiting now for the spring to embark on an even more ambitious program.

Valley-Wide Federation

united in a strong Valley-wide organization can be effected, he personally would see no need to continue the Mid-Valley organization separately. CVPOA's George Brown has called the proposal "well worth exploring" and has set December 1 as the date for its presentation to his group at Tularcitos School.

During the past couple of weeks, Sanders and Jewell have discussed the plan with individuals in various parts of the Valley "with responses varying from very satisfactory to enthusiastic."

"Two things are needed: solution of local problems AND problems of the larger area," Sanders said. "Through a federation this would be possible. Most effective, certainly, would be the achievement of this arrangement through the CVPOA, which has done and continues to do so much good work."

Sanders, a member of the board of directors of the Farm Center Association, is a physicist and professor at the Naval Postgraduate School. Jewell, a member of the Mid-Valley association, is a naval aviator; he also instructs at the NPG.

Community Center Board Looks At Figures

(Financial, That Is !)

The accompanying statements were compiled by Doyt Early and Bob Jones, recently elected president of the Community Center Board of Directors, to demonstrate the current financial status of the swimming pool, the Center's major project for the past year.

In the Statement of Costs, the first column shows the exact amount of money actually spent in building the pool. The second column represents the amount donated in materials and labor, over and above cash expended. The third column is the actual value of the installation, the final figure, $42,331.63, representing exactly what the pool is worth.

The "Financial Picture" is an estimated budget for the ensuing year, showing an $850 operating deficit that must be made up, according to Jones, through donations, rentals, and memberships. The Planned Capital Improvements, totalling $15,000.00 represent an amount that will have to be raised in order for the project to be brought to completion. Plans are under way, Jones said, for several special benefit activities to be conducted in the spring.

He also points out that more than a thousand dollars in pledges is not yet paid in, but counts upon receiving these by Christmas.

Lionettes Fashion Show

Members of the Carmel Valley Lionettes are invited to make their reservations for the November dinner meeting to be held the 19th at Leavell's at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Nick Skallyo, chairman of the affair, announces an exciting preview of holiday fashions and ideas for Christmas to be shown by Ellen Waters of Carmel Valley. All wives of Lions are invited as well as husbands and guests. Reservations must be made by November 16 with Mrs. Skallyo, 659-4414; Mrs. Clyde Yeisley, 659-2174; or Mrs. Mark Hattan, 659-2468.

KEEP DOORWAYS CLEAR

Scatter rugs, toys and other articles which may cause a person to slip, trip or fall should be cleared from glass door areas.

What's doing?

Nowadays you find extension phones wherever people live a lot — in the kitchen, workshop, bedroom and patio. But here's one that tops them all! When the world's champion flagpole sitter took his lofty perch on Atlantic City's boardwalk, one of his first requests was for a phone. He got one. An extension was connected to a nearby hotel switchboard and run up the pole to him. It may not have saved the champion any steps, but it was sure located where he lived a lot.

Olympic Games always provide a world of thrills—the great sportsmanship, the new records, the friendly goodwill among nations. And with each Olympiad come marvelous changes that win no medals but add enjoyment to these events. This year, for example, Americans could watch the impressive opening ceremonies live and direct from Tokyo via a communications satellite. And, Americans in Japan sharing Olympic thrills with folks back home enjoyed telephone conversations as clear as crosstown calls—thanks to the recent opening of the first telephone cable between America and Asia.

November 4, 1924 marked the first radio broadcast of presidential election returns. (Telephone lines helped make it possible just as they do today.) How's your history? Coolidge defeated John W. Davis.

A telephone customer just solved a mystery. You see, she frequently came home to find her telephone off the hook. It turned out to be the work of her pet dog. Seems that whenever the phone rang, Fido would do the customary thing; he'd answer it. He'd just jump up on the table, push the handset off, and bark into it until he heard a voice from the other end. So the customer ordered a Bell Chime ringer through her telephone business office in the hope that her dog will be fooled when a melodic chime takes the place of the familiar telephone ring. Doggone good idea!

SENIOR BREAKFAST

Carmel High Seniors plan a benefit breakfast Saturday, November 14, in the High School cafeteria, preceding the lightweight football game with Pacific Grove at Carmel High. Breakfast will be served at 9:00 a.m.

To benefit what? According to Cathy Farr, secretary of the senior class, proceeds will go to the gift which the senior class presents to the school annually upon its graduation. An appropriate gift will be chosen by the class later in the year.

WOODS SCHOOL

Woods School has a few vacancies for volunteer mothers to work in the school library in order that it may remain open each afternoon. The work may be scheduled for alternate weeks. Mothers looking for "interesting and challenging" activity involving young people are invited to stop by any Tuesday or Thursday to see what is being done by other mothers -- and to join in.

PEN PALS

Fourth grade students of Mrs. Janet Herben and Mrs. Katherine Holmgren at Woods School recently designed, constructed and sent a very large card saying "Happy Birthday, Mexico" to the Mexican Consul in San Francisco to celebrate Mexico's Independence Day. With the greeting went a request for 4th grade pen pals.

Within a few days, the Woods School pupils received an answer from Senor Dominguez, the Mexican Consul, praising them for their goodwill and promising to forward the request for pen pals.

And now the 4th graders here have begun to receive letters from 4th graders of the Heroes to Baja school in Ensenada!

Recreational Group For Jr. High Students

Any Junior High students; grades 7, 8, and 9, interested in participating in a youth group, are invited to attend a meeting Friday, November 13, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. in the Education Building next to the Community Chapel.

The group is to be sponsored by the Community Chapel, and Rev. Don Johnson and other parents will be present at each meeting.

This will be an organizational meeting to plan future activities. Refreshments will be served. For further information call Donna Condren after school at 659-2443.

Distinguished Visitor

British Journalist In Carmel Valley

BY BETTY BRANCH

Distinguished visitors are no rarity in Carmel Valley to be sure, but are always fun to receive. Mr. Morley Tonkin is president of the Institute of Journalists of the British Commonwealth, a former Fleet Street journalist now publishing a chain of six weekly newspapers and three magazines based in Shrewsbury, England. His operation was the first in Britain to install a "broadsheet" web offset operation and mind you, first in the world to install an 8-unit Goss press.

Last week he visited Carmel Valley, and came to pay his respects at the Outlook office. Yes, it was moving day, and the stalwart and sporting gentleman hove to and helped load filing cabinets, addressograph gear and whatnot into the station wagons of staff members.

Puffing on a pipe of Sherlock Holmesian proportions, he appeared superbly photogenic but declined to pose. "I have a rule in my papers that my pictures never appear. The reason is that our columns are only 11 em's wide and they cannot get my ears in. If they turn me sideways they cannot get my nose in."

That settled it.

Regarding Carmel Valley, Mr. Tonkin agreed with only a bit of prodding that it is one of the outstanding scenic locales in his worldwide experience, most certainly.

"...But I would say careful eyes need to be kept on the type of development. I would hate to think this place would become like Los Angeles," he shuddered. "That's a dreadful place! I've got a daughter living there..."

"In particular, they have such a mess of powerlines, telephone lines and what-have-you down there. Now is the time to insist that in your Valley these things be kept underground!"

Mr. Tonkin is visiting the United States in order to study web offset reproduction. He has corresponded with Outlook publisher William J. Norton for some years on matters of mutual interest. Norton has a 2-unit Goss at his Cupertino installation.

Of Mr. Tonkin's nine publications, the eldest is the Shrewsbury Chronicle, which was founded in 1772 -- four years before you-know-what! The Institute over which he presides looks after the interests of journalists throughout the British Commonwealth and is incorporated by Royal Charter. As for his surname, Mr. Tonkin was intrigued that it is shared by Mr. Thomas Tonkin, administrator of the Community Hospital of the Monterey Peninsula. He remarked that Tonkin appears a more common name in the U.S. than in its country of origin.

FIRE CALLS

Members of the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department received a 10:00 p.m. call on October 31 to Boronda Road where a tree limb had fallen near the Graham property causing a short in the power line. No damage resulted and the Volunteers stood by until P.G.&E. could be notified.

Mrs. Kenneth Van Hagen. Guests enjoyed bingo, refreshments and the antics of a special gift, a frog hand puppet. Invited to share Vickie's celebration were the McFadden children, Stacey, Denise, Timmie and Michael, Sheri Sweiss, Linda Wilson, Colleen Waters, Christine Bottaro and Vickie's brother, Stephen.

Newest member of the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department is Milton A. Marquard Jr., Calle De Los Agri-nemors. "Skip" will serve the customary six month probationary training period.

Dorothy and Thad Ramsey, home from a two week vacation in Nevada with friends and relatives, are still chuckling over the name of an establishment discovered in the Round Hill Shopping Center and called "The Pour House".

A luncheon at the Carmel Valley Manor for residents and their guests preceded the Autumn style show whose theme was, "Ellen Waters presents fashions in the Proper Manor." Mrs. Shore Mything was chairman of the event that saw a large number of husbands as well as wives in attendance. The models were Mesdames I. A. Clayton, Fenton Grigsby, Amanda Huntsaker, J. L. Parrott, William Williams, Hazel Rider, Clayton M. Wright, and Mary Howard. Door prizes were awarded to Mrs. Olive Arlett and Miss Annis Ostrander.

A chili supper was served with spiced apple cider punch.

to the members of the Couples Club of the Carmel Valley Community Chapel attending the Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Mathews, 98 Ford Road. Co-hosts of the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lambert. The tables, in orange and black, were attractive with crepe paper jack-o'-lanterns and other Halloween decorations. The prize for the best costume was presented to a devastating lady, who unmasked turned out to be MR. Don Brill! The "traveling prize" that changed hands every 15 minutes was finally awarded to Bob Lambert. Other costumed guests included; Rev. and Mrs. Don Johnson, Cmdr. and Mrs. Norton Goodsell, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Don Brill.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Baker invited a group of friends to an "election eve" dinner party at their home on Calle De Estes. Awaiting the returns were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Al Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Antoncich and Mrs. Frank O'Neal.

Lt. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Dickerson of Paso Mediano welcomed a son, David Kenneth, who arrived October 23 at the Fort Ord Hospital weighing 7 lb. 7 oz. Lending assistance from her home in Alice, Texas, is Miss Ruby Johnson. A friend and employee of Mrs. Dickerson's mother for 19 years, she will spend a month in the Valley while Master Dickerson gets acquainted with his parents and big sister, four-year-old, Denise.

SING ALONG WITH MIDGE

Of recent nights, Midge Pittman has formed an informal group which gathers around the piano or organ, and sings old time songs and hymns. Bernice Skowran will be found at the piano and Connie Carruth at the console of the organ, playing request numbers and extending the vocal abilities of the members present. All members are welcome and invited to participate.

HORSE ON THE LOOSE

A few days ago Mrs. Jack Black of Hacienda Carmel stopped a runaway horse, calmed him, and held on awaiting the arrival of the riders, who had been thrown off as they were riding down the Carmel River bed. Mrs. Black somehow managed to remove the saddle which was hanging under the horse's belly, and no doubt was the cause of the runaway. Mr. Clyde Hunter also arrived in time to be of some help. The riders' names are not known.

FIRST PRESIDENTIAL VOTE

On Election Day at Hacienda Carmel, the first members to vote were Mr. and Mrs. George Hattie. The Hatties became American Citizens in 1961, coming here from Canada, and decided that since this was their first opportunity to vote for a president, they would also be the first to vote at Hacienda Carmel. Some 310 voters cast their ballots.

NANCY NESS BOWMAN AND HER OPERA WORKSHOP

Nancy Ness Bowman, an international star of concert stage and opera, will bring her Opera Workshop Group to Hacienda Carmel on Sunday, November 15, at 8:00 p.m.

Mrs. Bowman now has a studio in Carmel where she gives private lessons, and with her excellently trained Opera Group has given very generously of her time and talents to Hacienda Carmel and other organizations. Last April they gave a benefit for Children's House of Carmel Valley sponsored by Hacienda Carmel, which enabled us to turn over to the Children's House a very substantial sum of money.

ABOUT THE TOP OF THE WORLD

We doubt that even the Greeks would have the word for the view from this private 5 acre knob on the top of Jacks Peak. If you can imagine hovering in a helicopter at about 1000 feet above Carmel High School, you might have some idea of the sweep of a view that takes in all of lovely Carmel Bay, Pt. Lobos, the Valley mountains, and even Santa Cruz across Monterey Bay, if the day is clear.

There's a low-slung house fitted right onto the top of this knoll with the view from all its windows. It's a comfortable, unpretentious 2 bedroom and den or studio, and a lot of miscellaneous development like kennel-runs for three dogs, an auxiliary electrical system, bomb shelter, complete fencing, a corral. Used to have a specimen orchard of dwarf fruit trees, but tenants let it die out. Specially prepared soil still there, though, and the landscaping is done with natives and succulents for easy care and full time to enjoy the view.

You really should see it, and bring your camera along. You'll not likely have an opportunity to get this bird's-eye view anywhere else except from that helicopter we mentioned. By the way the price is only $69,500.

Sadie Hawkins Dance Turns Junior High Into Dogpatch

Carmel Junior High School went Dogpatch with abandon Saturday night, when the 8th and 9th graders held their Sadie Hawkins Day dance.

Almost-life-sized Yokum characters chased each other around the gym walls. Paper mache shmoos sat on basketball rings, and in their traditional heap-of-plenty pose in the middle of the room. Crepe paper streamers were everywhere; locker room doors were cleverly disguised as lopsided, crescent-doored, out-houses.

In good mountain style, huge vats of Kickapoo-joy-juice welcomed thirsty dancers, and the refreshment table was heaped high with cupcakes, brownies, and cookies.

Costumes were de regueur, with first honor going to Poppy Creedon with her pig, and second honor to Suzanne Desjarlais. Most of the girls wore their best gunny sacks, decorated with bows, hearts, and ruffles. Boys were first-class hayseeds in frazzled shirts and cut-offs. Art teacher Joseph Broadman arrived as Skunk Hollow's finest, resplendent with tie and high hat. (and Pajama-stuffed muscles!)

Winners of the dance contest were Robert Harris and Nancy Vartabedian, Steve Hall and Diane Lando. Special recognition went to teachers Marvin Patterson, Joe Broadman and (Dancin' Dan) Yurkovich, Principal.

Chaperones were teachers, Parents Club board members and other noble parents. Music was by The Imperials; and a great good time was had by all!

Accolades to the students who planned it, arranged it, and did all the work... special bouquets to Mary Jane Thompson, student-body president and all her committees, especially Wade Rose, who was in charge of decorations, and Julie Fehring and Kim Dennis who handled refreshments.

CV Lions Club To Sponsor Benefit

A hootenanny at the Warehouse on Cannery Row, set for Sunday afternoon, November 15, 2:00-5:00 p.m. will be the brightest benefit of the season according to its chairman, Bill Powers. Sponsored by the Carmel Valley Lions Club, the event is part of their White Cane project to raise funds for sight conservation.

Powers promises a line-up of popular talent under the direction of Morgan Stock, head of the drama department at MPC, and producer of many local theatrical attractions. On the list of entertainers are blues singer Roy Gaines, pianist Dave Tobiasen, folk singers Joe Broadman and Lisa Buchenroth, and Greeley Bob, a one-man band. Chris Crist of KDON is to be Master of Ceremonies, and band music will be furnished by Jake Stock and his Abalone Stompers and the Warehouse Gang. Door prizes and other surprises are planned as added attractions.

Tickets, printed partly in Braille to dramatize the use of the proceeds, are on sale at Abinante's Music Store in Monterey, Ring's Restaurant, Forest Hill Car Wash, Midway Drugstore in Monterey, Rinky Dink Coffee Shop, Carmel, and the Thunderbird Shop in Carmel Valley. They are priced at $1.50.

The committee of Lions in charge of the festivities includes Cmdr. William Stowers, Leroy Dufur, Dick Reams, Bud Hall, and Bill Penpraze.

MPC Library Open Sundays

The library at Monterey Peninsula College will be open hereafter on Sunday afternoons from 1 to 5, college officials announced recently. Any resident of the college district, which extends from Big Sur through Fort Ord and includes Carmel Valley, may use the library and its 23,000 books for reference or borrowing. A card will be issued on presentation of local identification such as a driver's license.

The library opens at 7:45 a.m. Monday through Friday, and closes at 9:30 p.m. each evening except Friday, when the closing time is 4:30 p.m.

Local Film Premiere On Double Bill At Tantamount

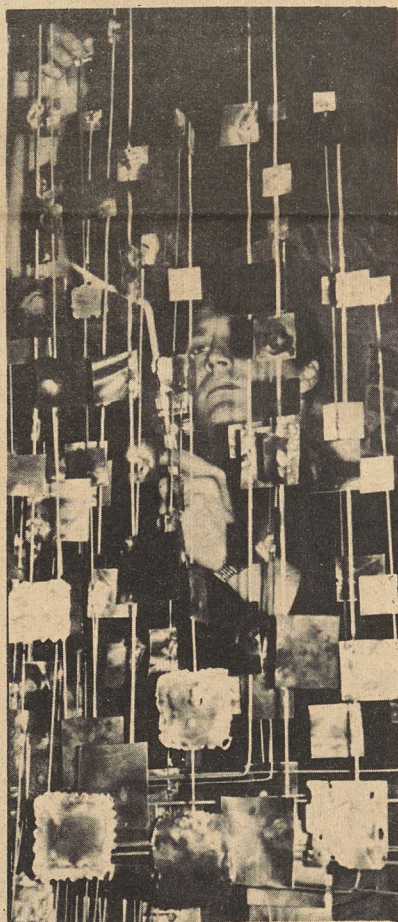

Tantamount Theatre in Carmel Valley will be the scene of a world premiere this weekend when it presents for the first showing a short feature by Orson Durand entitled "Flower Beneath the Foot."

Photographed in color against a Peninsula background of Point Lobos, the beaches, streets, and gardens of Carmel, Monterey's Cannery Row and Wharf is a cast of local actors under the direction of producer Durand. Featured players are Jean Morisot, Diana Leroy, Kathy O'Halloran, and Valleyite Robert Bedwell.

"Flower Beneath the Foot" is described by its creator, Orson Durand, who is now a resident of Carmel, as a continuing search for new forms and symbols in the craft and art of the motion picture.

The premiere shares this Friday and Saturday night bill at the Tantamount with the 1954 Japanese classic "Ugetsu."

Community Church Sheriff's Blotter Has Birthday

A First Anniversary celebration for the Community Church of the Monterey Peninsula, which formally organized on November 22, 1963, will begin November 12 with a dinner meeting for the membership. After a 6:30 buffet, the meeting, which will be held at the Carmel Woman's Club, will include election of officers and church department directors for 1965.

A formal announcement will follow of the appointment as permanent minister of the Rev. Burkert Cree, who will begin his new assignment at worship services on November 22. These will take place at the Nix Studio, Mission & 8th Streets, Carmel.

Mr. Cree comes to Community Church from the First Congregational Church in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin, where he has held the post of associate minister since 1962. He has a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Harvard University Divinity School, which he entered immediately after graduation from Earlham College in 1957. While at Harvard, Mr. Cree was assistant to Dr. George Arthur Buttrick in Divinity School classes, and was associated with the Cambridge YMCA in special youth work. Ordained as a Presbyterian minister in 1960, his first pastorate was in Denver, from which he was given leave for further studies in Europe. With his wife, Angelika, and his two sons, George and Tobias, Mr. Cree will make his home in Carmel on Oliver Road.

Oct. 26. A vacant house on Paso Hondo was reported burglarized; the brother of the recent purchaser gave the names of three suspects to the deputy sheriff. These were subteen-aged boys of the neighborhood; after extensive questioning they admitted taking the missing items, and were cited to the juvenile authorities.

Nov. 1. An employee of the Valley Rock Co. near Farm Center reported that an unknown person was surprised at the plant, ran away and could not be caught. Investigation showed many electrical wires cut on three different trucks, with damage estimated at $100. The owner could give no explanation nor guess at identity of the responsible person.

Three teen-aged boys were reported trespassing on property next to the river, and obstreperously refusing to leave. The sheriff's deputy put them off the premises.

Nov. 5. A Pacific Grove resident reported a house he is building in Carmel Knolls extensively damaged by someone unhooking an interior water pipe and letting water flow over tiles and carpets in several rooms. Entry was made apparently by key, as building was locked and there were no signs of forcing. The builder named a recently fired employee who still possessed a key, but doubted that the man would be so destructive. The investigation is continuing.

Theatre Consultant To Visit

Douglas Campbell, artistic consultant to the Festival Theatre Foundation of California, will be on the Peninsula this week for conferences with local residents looking toward a campaign to build a 1500-seat open-stage theatre in Monterey.

Campbell has been associated with the Tyrone Guthrie Theatre in Minneapolis and the Stratford Shakespearean Festival in Canada, and would guide the local enterprise along their lines. The California Festival Theatre would seek to establish a resident professional repertory group, to perform here during the summer and exchange personnel and productions with other festivals during the winter.

The Festival Theatre Foundation, a non-profit organization of Peninsula residents, recently opened offices at 651 Cannery Row. Marjorie Winfield, formerly of the Guthrie Theatre staff, is its Executive Secretary.

MPC Alumni Hold Homecoming Reunion Saturday

The Monterey Peninsula College Alumni Association will hold its annual homecoming reunion Saturday, November 14, from 6 to 7:30 p. m. in the Fiesta Room of the Casa Munras Hotel.

A buffet-style snack table and refreshment bar will accompany a special screening of "The MPC Story," filmed in 1957.

Reserve-seat tickets to the Homecoming Game - MPC vs. Menlo, at MPC Stadium, and reserve parking permits will be available to attending alumni.

For reservations, alumni may call 375-9821, Ext. 308.

The Carmel High School Padres won again, this time against the Hollister Haybalers last Saturday. The final tally was 38 to 6. The Carmel Padre-babes defeated the Hollister J.V.'s 14 to 6.

With three minutes gone in the first quarter, Ralph Juarez rambled 40 yards to pay dirt. His conversion kick was good. Charlie Eyster scored the next two touchdowns, both on long runs. In the second quarter, Dave Marvin picked off a Hollister lateral and romped 30 yards to score. After Marvin's run, Juarez kicked off, the Hollister men fumbled, and Tim Hall bent down and scooped up the ball without breaking his stride. Eyster's last T.D. came in the third quarter. His three touchdowns Saturday almost equalled the league record set by Juarez two weeks ago when Ralph ran for four. The only two conversions of the game were made by Juarez.

It is interesting to note that the three top rushers in the Mission Trail Athletic League are from Carmel. They are Juarez, Eyster, and John Tolan; the last is probably the most underrated player in the league. John is a hard runner and a smart runner, but he is hampered because of the blocking given him.

Carmel's defense is one of the top in the league. Its two biggest guns, Fred Gehring and Bill Stowers, have been mentioned in this column from time to time. Gehring played two years of Junior Varsity ball, and this year is his second year on the Varsity. His success can be attributed to his low tackling and to his attitude about playing for Carmel. Stowers is playing his second year on Varsity also.

Being the biggest lineman, Bill has had to set a standard for the younger boys on the team. He is a clean-cut lad with a bright outlook on life. With two boys such as Fred and Bill in the forward line, it is not hard to conceive why the Carmel defense is tops.

Monterey Peninsula College football is going to suffer from the loss of Grant Pollock, who has left school to go to work. He will be missed a great deal by the MPC team. Grant is familiar to Peninsula fans because of his success at Carmel High School, where he made the All-League team last year on both offense and defense.

CV Scouts Win Awards

BY BOB RAY, SCOUTMASTER

Boy Scout Troop #127 held a Court of Honor at the Carmel Valley Community Center last month to give full recognition to the Boy Scouts of the Valley who have advanced in Scouting rank. A total of 23 young men were honored in front of the assembled parents and friends.

Mr. Charles Crush gave a very interesting and informative talk, describing his adventures and misadventures during many years of mountain climbing on some of the tough peaks of the world, here and overseas. He also demonstrated briefly the uses of the software and hardware a mountaineer needs -- climbing boots, different types of ropes, examples of pack frames and equipment bags, steel pitons and loops, ice axes, sleeping bags and tents. Our appreciative thanks go to Mr. Crush for his time and information.

The following Scouts received one-year pins: Chris Robinson, Timothy Upp, Gene Dutton, Richard Cullen. Earning merit badges in addition were Steve McClaran, swimming, cooking, one-mile swim; Glen Risdon, archery. Chet Cordrey also received recognition for his assistance as Den Chief of Cub Scout Den #3.

Two-year pins plus merit badges went to Dwight Jones, electricity; Ken Olsen, one-mile swim.

Awarded merit badges and three year pins were Bob Kutschbach, wildlife management, pioneering, nature; Brian Burton, reading; Doug Updike, pets, rabbit raising, art, first aid.

Greg Burton earned a four-year pin and a lifesaving merit badge.

Tom Brunner won badges for camping, archery, fishing, reading, and assistance as Den Chief of Cub Scout Den #1. Jim Todd earned badges for personal fitness and cooking.

Many of the boys have advanced a full rank in Scouting since the last Court of Honor in April. The following Scouts achieved second class rank: By Cordrey, Chris Robinson, Jim Dickinson, Tim Upp, Gene Dutton, Richard Cullen, Steve McClaran, Richard Hall, Kenneth Olsen, Dan Campbell.

Those achieving first class rank were Tom Brunner, Jim Todd, Glen Risdon, Dwight Jones, and Don Parks.

Douglas Updike and Brian Burton reached the Star Class Scout rank; Greg Burton and Robert Kutschbach were awarded Life Class Rank, only one step below Eagle Scout!

Our two newest Scouts, Ben

Viljoen and Shawn Davis, received recognition for earning Tenderfoot rank.

An especially big thank you was given to Mr. Richard Brunner, the assistant Scoutmaster during the past year, for the huge amount of time, effort and energy contributed to the boys in all phases of the scouting program. Thanks and appreciation go to him both from the Scouts and from myself.

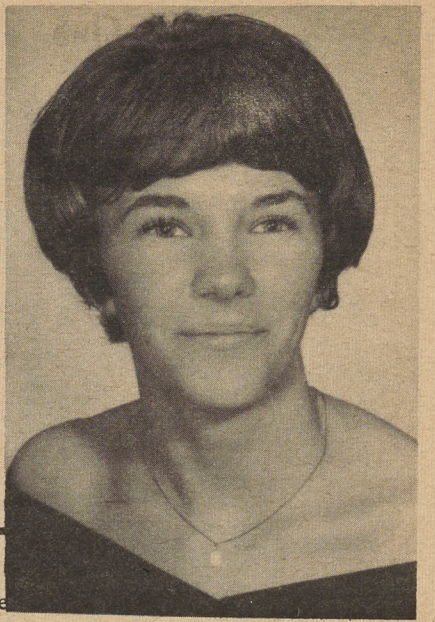

Silver Slippers

The Silver Slippers Square Dance Club held their Halloween Masquerade party last weekend at the Tularcitos multipurpose room. Archie Fleming called for the large number of dancers including the Slipperettes, the Beginners Class, the South Coasters from Big Sur, and their class of beginners.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Huss were in charge of the Halloween inspired decor that included pumpkins and cornstalks. The Husses, hospitality chairmen for the organization, had a tempting refreshment table with the traditional cider and doughnuts.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace, in the garb of a caveman and his mate, walked off with the award for the best costume. Winners of the games were Suzie Holley and Dick Stowe.

Dance enthusiasts are reminded to keep the night of November 21st circled on their calendar for the annual Hoedown sponsored by the Silver Slippers. The affair that draws participants from throughout the country will be held at the Tularcitos multipurpose room with Bill Patterson from Merced calling the tips. Donations will be $1.50

DAR Selects Cathy Farr

Cathy Farr has been selected for the annual Good Citizens Award among the girls at Carmel High School. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Farr was chosen by the faculty and girls of the senior class on the basis of leadership, dependability, service and patriotism. Next she is to compete on a regional basis with girls from other high schools who have won the same honor this year. Cathy will take an examination testing her knowledge of American History. The awards and competition are sponsored by the DAR.

Carmel Woman's Club

Mrs. Stanley Wilson, book chairman of the Carmel Woman's Club, announces a meeting on Monday, November 16, at 2:00 p.m. Mrs. Edward Bibb will review The Lost City by John Gunther.

Mrs. Bibb is a graduate of the University of Nevada, has done graduate work at the University of California, and is past president of the American Association of University Women, Monterey Peninsula branch.

Assisting the temporary hospitality chairman, Mrs. S. B. Moore, will be Mmes. Charles U. Fonteneau, Sam Coleman, and Jessica Bell.

Mmes. Fred Albertsen, C. H. Taggart, James Dixon and James E. Staveley will pour tea.

County Sanitarian Commends Chamber

Ed Munson, chairman of the County Board of Health, this week said that the Carmel Valley Chamber of Commerce had taken "a very progressive step" which will carry a considerable amount of weight in requesting the Board of Supervisors for a complete study of sewage for the Valley.

The Board of Health has pending an application to the state for a planning grant to make such a study both for the Valley and northern Monterey County. If the state approves the application, matching funds must be voted by the Board of Supervisors. Munson believes that the Chamber's action will influence the Supervisors to "see the matter in a favorable light."

He hopes for an answer from the state within the next few weeks.

4-H News

Monterey County 4-H held an Achievement Day last month to give out County awards to 4-H members.

Those representing Carmelo 4-H Club were Hazel and John Jacoby, Martha and Tom Crow, Janet and Dawn Powers, and Bill Muscutt, Jr. Martha and Janet received medals in Home Economics; Tom in Field Crops; John Vanetti in Garden; Dawn in Rabbits and Bill in Achievement.

We had steak, beans, salads, milk and ice-cream. The weather was beautiful and the Day was held at Oak Park in Greenfield.

DAWN POWERS

Many members and friends enjoyed the annual 4-H banquet held at Mission Ranch recently. Tables were decorated with witches, pumpkins and hay stacks made by the members.

Tom Crow and Dawn Powers were high point winners in the junior division.

were high point winners in the senior division.

Medals were awarded to Dawn Powers, County winner in Rabbits; to Janet Powers in Home Economics; to Martha Crow in Home Economics; to Tom Crow in Field Crops; and to Hazel Jacoby, County winner in home grounds beautification.

Achievement awards were given as follows: Ned Orret and Nancy Meadows; Bronze Star winners; Tom Crow, Silver Star; Janet Powers and Martha Crow, Gold Star.

The stars which these people have won are the points that are added up during the year and are put in their categories.

Officers of the Carmelo 4-H are: Janet Powers, president; Candy Gregory, recording secretary; Dawn Powers, corresponding secretary; Christine Dawson, songleader; Nancy Meadows, reporter; Martha Crow, file keeper; Hazel Jacoby, treasurer. NANCY MEADOWS parachute jumps.

The story of sport parachuting will be explained over the loud-speaker by Heaton, who directs the national organization from its headquarters in Monterey.

Last year he made 110 jumps to help finance his education; he has only to finish his thesis to earn his PhD in history from Oklahoma State University, where he was president of the sport parachute club for two years.

Heaton moved to the Peninsula last May to take over the direction of the national parachute organization, which has tion," he said. The American team of five men and four women won nine medals in the world-wide competition in Germany last summer in a sport which historically had been dominated by Russians and Czechs.

Establishing and promoting safety regulations for sport parachuting is one of the chief jobs of the Parachute Club of America. Fatality rate is lower than many other sports, Heaton pointed out, far below skiing, football and mountain climbing.

The club has established such safety rules as prohibiting jumping when the wind is over 18 miles an hour and opening a chute under 2,500 feet altitude.

"Sport parachuting is much more than just going up and falling out of an airplane," Heaton declared. Competition covers accuracy in landing and style in falling.

Most sport chutes are modified military equipment, costing $30 to $40. A complete outfit costs from $125 to $150, and includes two chutes, altimeter and stop watch, helmet, jump boots and coveralls.

Jumping here Sunday will be five servicemen and two civilians, from an airplane supplied by the Naval Air Facility.

READY TO JUMP is Norman Heaton, executive director of the Parachute Club of America, who will be one of seven to make parachute jumps at the fly-in of antique and home-built planes Sunday sponsored by the local Experimental Aircraft Association Sunday at Carmel Valley Airport. The show will take place between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

been headquartered locally since 1959. He succeeded Maj. Russell Gumby, who had directed the national Parachute Club since its start in Mt. Cisco, N. Y. in 1956 with only 60 members. Now it has more than 10,000 members and publishes its own handsome nationally-circulated magazine.

The Parachute Club of America, Heaton explained, is a non-profit division of the National Aeronautics Association and is the U.S. representative of the Federation Aeronautique Internationale for sport parachuting in this country. The locally-based organization is the national sanctioning and regulating body of the sport, Heaton said.

White Oaks Opening November 21

RON MITCHELL

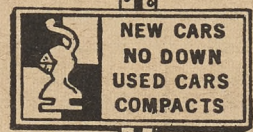

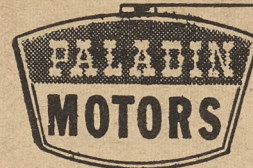

CARMEL VALLEY NEWS broadcast each Thursday morning at 9:35 over station KIDD. Newscaster Robb Mahr in cooperation with the Carmel Valley Outlook

"Look Back in Anger," a drama by John Osborne, will open the White Oaks Repertory Company's first season on Saturday, November 21. It will be directed by Eleanor Stoltz, familiar to local theatre-goers for her recent work in "The Three-Penny Opera" and "The Fantasticks."

The play received much attention during its Broadway run. Walter Kerr of the New York Herald Tribune said, "John Osborne is more than the sign of his generation, he is the sound of it. He has succeeded in raising an image of actual breathing men and women. He lights a blaze on Broadway!" Critics on the opening night called the drama "potent and compelling, filled with stinging wit and almost ferocious scorn."

Playing the leading role in "Look Back in Anger," Jimmy Porter, is Ron Mitchell, a new member of the White Oaks Company. Also new to Valley audiences is Seth Windgate, who will be seen as Jimmy's friend, Cliff. Mary Pattie, who was seen in several summer productions will play Jimmy's wife, Allison; Mary Bridget Mulkey will take the part of her friend, Helena. Rounding out the cast will be Don Laird, a long-time Carmel Valley resident.

"Look Back in Anger" will play Saturday and Sunday, November 21 and 22, and will continue on Friday and Saturday evenings for five weekends. Reservations may be made at 659-2248, the office number at the new White Oaks theatre.
